

Our Next Issue.

In order to give our readers the result of next Tuesday's election we will not issue our paper until Wednesday evening, one day later than usual.

Next Tuesday is election day

Try Langdon's City Butter Crackers.

Fine line of toothbrushes at Garrett Bros.

Miss Sarah Murphy left last Thursday to visit friends in Chillicothe.

Ask your grocer for Foster's city butter crackers. They are the best.

For perfumery (the finest in the land) go to Garrett Bros.

Miss Bertha Bridwell visited relatives and friends in Leesburg last week.

We pay the highest price for Wheat at HIRSHMAN & COWMAN'S.

For making salads, get a bottle of that fine salad oil, sold only by Garrett Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richards left Wednesday of last week to visit relatives in Newark.

Mr. Ed Hart, of Columbus, with his newly made bride, made Hillsboro a flying visit last Thursday.

Mr. David Beeson, of Canton, Ill., has been the guest of his cousin, Col. C. T. Pope, for the past week.

Dr. J. R. Callahan is in Toledo this week attending a meeting of the Ohio State Dental Association.

Miss Edith Parrett, of South Salem, has been visiting relatives in this city and vicinity for the past week.

You can always get the top of the market for your wheat at Model City Mills. H. & C.

Mr. T. P. Wiggins, of Cincinnati, was visiting his brothers, A. D. and Bruce Wiggins, in this city Saturday and Sunday.

General S. H. Hurst, of Chillicothe, was on our streets yesterday. He addressed a political meeting at Rainsboro last evening.

There will be a prohibition meeting at Sugartree Ridge on the night of Oct. 29th, 1886, to be addressed by Rev. J. W. Shade. All invited.

Twenty-five cents will be paid for a copy of the Highland News, of January 10th, 1883, in good order, to complete our file. Apply to this office.

Miss Kate Sturgeon, who has been the guest of Captain H. C. Dawson for several weeks past, returned to her home near Pittsburg, Pa., last Wednesday.

Mr. Frank Stevenson, who has been engaged at Keck's jewelry establishment, Cincinnati, is in town recuperating his health. He will probably be at home for several weeks.

Lena, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Granger, of Russell, died on Thursday last of diphtheria, in the eighth year of her age. The remains were interred in the Hillsboro Cemetery Friday. There was no public funeral.

Miss May Donally and Mrs. Nora Franklin, the popular visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Urie Sloan, have returned to their respective homes in Cincinnati and Portsmouth. Miss Donally left on Friday and Mrs. Franklin yesterday morning.

Miss Jennie Harris, of Paducah, Ky., arrived Wednesday evening of last week to make a visit of several months to her sister, Mrs. W. H. Gregg. Miss Jennie is one of Hillsboro's most popular visitors, and there is always a hearty welcome awaiting her from a wide circle of Hillsboro friends.

The following five indictments were found by the Grand Jury in session from Monday morning until Wednesday afternoon of last week: Jonathan Ruse, selling liquor on Sunday; Andrew Peyton, arson; W. T. Stanforth, embezzlement; D. S. Guthrie and Newton West, procuring an abortion.

Prof. E. T. Tappan, of Gambier, Republican candidate for State School Commissioner, was in town a few days last week. He made the boys at the Lincoln Club rooms a pleasant little speech Friday evening, and addressed the Highland County Teachers' Association at the M. E. Church Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Charles Wellbrook, the popular barber at the Palace Barber Shop, left last Wednesday for Mansfield, Ohio, where he will open a shop in his own name. Mr. Wellbrook has been in Hillsboro for four years, and is one of the best tonsorial artists ever in the city. His old friends and patrons are sorry to lose him, but wish him success in his new location.

C. M. Harsha, proprietor of Harsha's Marble and Granite Works, has just completed and erected in our cemetery the following fine monuments: Jacob Vance, Abner Moore and John Buntain. He has also laid foundations for the following, which he has under completion and will erect as soon as completed: Samuel Murphy, C. W. Murphy, Thos. Head and Major Buck. He also received an order last week for a fine granite monument to be erected at Rainsboro for Uncle Philip Rhoades. Persons wanting cemetery work will do well to see him, as he is a practical workman and an artist, and works from many original designs which he makes at the request of his numerous customers.

Mr. Michael Haller.

After five years of suffering and confinement, Mr. Michael Haller, the oldest citizen of Hillsboro, quietly passed away last Saturday evening, October 23d, in the ninety-second year of his age.

The funeral services were conducted at the house of his son-in-law, Mr. Adam Heppard, Monday morning at ten o'clock, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which organization he had long been a member. The remains were interred in the Hillsboro cemetery. Michael Haller was born at Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 4th, 1794, and died at the good old age of ninety-one years, ten months and nineteen days. He was married to Elizabeth Duncan April 27th, 1823. For some time he resided in Hagerstown, Md., from which place he removed to Hillsboro in March, 1872. Since that time he has been a citizen of this place, a period of nearly sixty years. He became a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Lafayette Lodge No. 25, by initiation, January 23d, 1846. He took all the degrees in 1846. In July, 1846, he was elected Secretary of the lodge. He filled several of the chairs of Vice and Noble Grand, becoming a Past Grand July 2d, 1848. He served the lodge for more than twenty years as Guardian, and until confined to the house by sickness was scarcely ever absent from any meeting.

Of eight children four have died and four remain. His wife died about five years ago, since which time he has made his home with son-in-law, Mr. Adam Heppard.

Mayor's Court.

On Tuesday, October 19th, Thomas McLaughlin, an umbrella mender, pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness, and was sent to work out a fine of $5 on the stone pile.

On Tuesday afternoon George Stratton, of Danville, was tried before Mayor Harman on the charge of cutting with intent to kill. The charge was preferred by Frank Carey, who claims that while Byron Hart, George Leighman and the two first named were on their way home on the night of Saturday, Oct. 16th, the defendant drew a knife and commenced cutting at him and his companions, and succeeded in inflicting some ugly wounds in Carey's hand. After hearing the testimony it became evident that the cutting was the result of a drunken row and the case was dismissed. Stratton was re-arrested on the charge of disturbing the peace, pleaded guilty and was fined by the Mayor $50, which was secured by C. P. Sanders.

On Thursday last Frank Chaney was arrested for fighting with a demented boy who had been wandering about the streets for several days. The two got into a controversy in which, after striking at each other, Chaney hit the boy in the head with a rock, fracturing the skull slightly. The Mayor secured the boy's admission to the Infirmary, where he remained until his father came for him. The wound proved to be slight. Chaney was fined $5.

The Superior Building Association.

A second new building association has been organized in this city, of which the following named gentlemen have been elected Directors: S. Hickle, G. W. Bowers, M. Gorman, J. C. Hallowell, E. Young, John O'Connell, Hamer Hoggett, W. C. Cowman and Alphonso Hart. The books of the Association are open for subscription at the office of Ed. L. Watson. The number of shares is limited to 2,000, 600 of which have already been taken. The shares are of $200 each, the weekly dues 25 cents. The regular meetings will be on Tuesday evenings, but the books will be open for the payment of dues on Saturday also. The Association is similar to other organizations of the same name which have been formed in this place, the principal points of difference being the size of the shares, the new being $200 while the others were $100 each. Also, in the Superior Association the borrower is granted an annual rebate of interest on the dues which he has paid during the year. In the other associations this is not done. The shares in the Superior being larger and the weekly dues the same it will take longer for it to pay out its shares. The first regular meeting for the payment of dues will be held on Tuesday evening, November 2d, at the Mayor's office. Those desiring to secure stock in the Association would do well to call on Ed. L. Watson at his office before that date.

A Narrow Escape.

Last Saturday afternoon as Mrs. Robert Duffey and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. J. C. Gregg, were driving through the Clear Creek bridge on the Samantha pike, their horse became frightened at a pile of lumber lying by the roadside at the south entrance of the bridge. The horse became unmanageable and whirled completely around. The occupants seeing the buggy about to upset leaped from it, and strange to say, the ladies escaped without the least injury, and the child with only a few slight bruises. The shafts of the buggy were broken and the buggy thrown down the embankment at the north entrance of the bridge, and was otherwise badly damaged. The horse ran on as fast as Mr. Moses Calvert's house where it stopped of its own accord. Mr. Calvert took charge of the runaway and brought the ladies home, who experienced no inconvenience from their adventure other than a pretty thorough fright.

Hoggett-Rouse.

Thursday, October 21st, at high noon, Mr. Frank H. Hoggett and Miss Iva Rouse, daughter of Wm. Rouse, of New Russell, were married at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Ewing, of Ripley, Ohio. On the following day they were pleasantly entertained by a dinner given by the brother of the groom, Mr. Hamer Hoggett, of this place, where they were met by quite a number of their friends, who extended their congratulations and wished them long life and much happiness.

C. E. S. C.

The Circle met on Thursday evening last at the residence of Dr. Hoyt. The exercises began with prayer by Rev. Clarke. The lesson for the evening included the first 113 pages of "Walks and Talks in the Geological Field." One of the chapters related to the wonders of Yellowstone Park, and another to earthquakes. Recent events having revived interest in the latter subject, quite an animated discussion ensued after the lesson upon its topics, and Rev. Pearson favored the Circle with a very entertaining discourse on geology, and the various theories as to the causes and phenomena of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions.

After a thoroughly enjoyable evening profitably spent, the Circle adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. H. A. Pavey on Thursday evening next, at seven o'clock.

Bon-Ton Breakfast.

A pleasant innovation of the ordinary was made by Mrs. Gardner last Thursday, in her ten o'clock ladies' breakfast. Judge Gardner's home is peculiarly well arranged for just such an entertainment, and was equally well graced by its hostess and her accomplished daughter, Mrs. Sloan, assisted by the latter's popular guests, Mrs. Franklin and Miss Donally.

The favored ladies are enthusiastic in their compliments: such a delightfully informal party, most excellent breakfast, so handsomely and smoothly served, etc., etc.—in short, everything "just lovely." These same ladies honored the occasion by appearing in their newest fall suits, prettiest bonnets, freshest gloves, brightest smiles, and most thorough good humor.

A Painful Accident.

Last Friday morning Mr. J. W. B. Ayres met with a painful accident by falling from a tree. He was gathering apples at his farm west of town, when the limb on which his ladder was leaning gave way. He fell to the ground, a distance of fifteen feet, and the ladder fell on top of him. No bones were broken, but he was seriously bruised about the face and body. He was immediately brought to town and Dr. Brown summoned, who soon made his patient as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

His injuries while not dangerous, are exceedingly painful and will probably confine him to the house for several weeks.

Barrere-Mackerley.

On Thursday, October 21st, Mr. Bebe Barrere, of this place, and Miss Lulu Mackerley, of South Salem, were married at the home of the bride's parents, R. K. Campbell officiating. After a week's tour of the South they will return to Hillsboro next Thursday evening.

G. A. R.

The regular meeting of Post No. 205 will be held Thursday evening, October 28th, 1886. A full attendance of the members is requested. By order, W. T. GREUBER, Post Adj't.

Common Pleas Court.

Gray and Juddick, a firm, vs. John Merrill. Judgment by default for $47.50. Hiestand & Cowman vs. Calvin Pence. Replevin. Motion to dismiss motion sustained. Josie H. Stultz vs. George W. Stultz. Divorce. Divorce granted. Carroll & Dohmman vs. Joseph M. Sanders. Forfeiture. Judgment for $250.00. Decree in foreclosure. C. Antman & Co. vs. J. H. Moore. Money. Judgment by default for $250.00. The Grand Jury was in session three days, and upon the evening of the third day their foreman, E. G. Bostright, made the following report: They have examined forty witnesses in nine cases, six of which were heard before them by transcript; they have passed one case to the next Grand Jury and have found five true bills of indictment as herein presented to the Court, to-wit: Indictment against Jonathan Ruse for selling intoxicating liquors on Sunday; indictment against William T. Stanforth for embezzlement; indictment against Andrew Peyton for arson; indictment against D. S. Guthrie and L. N. West for procuring an abortion on a colored girl. They visited the jail and made a careful examination thereof, and find that the rules prescribed by the Court for the care thereof and for the government of its inmates, have been faithfully carried out and properly enforced. Prisoners all report good treatment and all are in good health. There being no further business for the Grand Jury they were discharged. Court adjourned at noon Saturday until Tuesday, Oct. 26th, at 9 o'clock.

We pay 75 cents for Good Wheat H. & C.

Impromptu.

Let others "blow" and bluster loud Of shoddy stocks, in which they're proud, And glory with a shameless grace 'Bout sales which only have a place In fiction sheer. We'll sing, in accents clear and true, Of our vast store, of goods all new Now open to the public gaze, Commanding universal praise From far and near. Our goods excel in all that goes To show the ready skill of those Who make. The stock from which they're made Is ever of that honest grade Which stands the test. Our customers are friends, and they Are doing daily what they may, With right good will, to blaze the way For all who want for what they pay The most and best. Our sales are large and bona fide. All the best trade our goods have tried Are happy in the thought that we Can do great good to all who're free To buy for cash. Then come to us when goods you want. Our flag's unfurled, and it will flaunt Triumphant in the autumn air, Where what is done is on the square. Without a clash. Very respectfully, T. A. WALKER & CO., Smith Block, Hillsboro, O.

Mr. G. W. Shockley, one of the proprietors of the Saturday Globe, Okla., is visiting friends in this city. He made the News-Herald a pleasant call yesterday.

RAINSBORO.

October 25th, 1886.

Judge Higgins and wife, of Hillsboro, passed through this place last Sabbath. Mrs. S. M. Taggart and little son, of Jefferson, were guests of her parents for several days, returning home on Sunday. Miss Anna Park and her visiting friends, Misses Abbie Upp and Thornton, attended church here last Sabbath. Miss Thornton left on Tuesday for her far away home in Pasadena, Cal.

Miss Laura Gregg, of Hillsboro, spent the Sabbath with her friend, Miss Mary George, at her home on Rocky Fork, and was the guest of friends here several days the past week.

U. C. Miller has been putting the finishing touches on Henry Dammon's house, thereby greatly improving its appearance. The public school of South Salem has suspended for a time on account of the prevalence of diphtheria, and Edward Roberts is at home this week.

The Rev. Mr. Wright has been reappointed to Grubbins Church, a very gratifying place to his congregation at this place. Rev. Charles Luck is announced to preach at the M. E. Church to-night.

Carry Grim, of New Petersburg, who by common consent is no longer worn the belt as the champion fencer of this locality, is in danger of being outwitted by John Redkey, of this place. Mr. Redkey brought in a string of bowties Wednesday as the result of a few hours angling.

The types last week made us say that Rev. S. Crothers was remodeling his farm when we were here, and that he was remodeling the dwelling on his farm. Mr. Ellis, the State Lecturer, attended the public Grange meeting here on Wednesday evening and made a sensible and interesting address. Thomas Cooper, of Belfast, was also present and made a short speech.

J. H. Roads, of Chillicothe, was here Wednesday and Thursday on business. Mrs. Margaret Mackerley and Mrs. Lydia Browning attended the wedding of Mr. Bebe Barrere and Miss Lulu Mackerley at South Salem, Thursday.

Mr. Morgan and daughter, of New Boston, were at Dr. Miller's Saturday. F. I. Bumgarner, of Boston, was in town on Friday.

A. W. Redkey and wife are visiting their daughter, Mrs. James Brown, of Danville. Isaac Upp recently sold his fine span of iron gray mares to his brothers, Jacob and Alonzo. M. V. Whiston bought the remaining four Jersey cows that H. K. Roads had on sale here for J. H. Roads, of Chillicothe.

James Foraker has the contract for repairing the pike between this place and New Petersburg. Gen. Hurst, of Chillicothe, and H. D. Davis, of Hillsboro, are announced to speak here on the political issues from a Republican standpoint on the evening of the 26th.

We are authorized to say that the first quarterly meeting for Rainsboro church will begin at Marshall next Saturday at 10 a. m., with a sermon from Presiding Elder Pearson. The quarterly conference will be held in connection with the first service.

A surprise birthday dinner is being planned for Joseph Carns at his home two miles north of this place. Invitations have been extended to several of our citizens. Prof. Garrett and his assistants, Misses Alice Taggart and Minnie Brown, attended the Teachers' Association at Hillsboro to-day. Miss Jessie Browning went also.

CYNTHIANA.

October 23d, 1886.

Lulu Wilson, of near Rainsboro, is spending a short time with her grandfather, Mr. James Wilson. Mrs. Copeland, of Lounst Grove, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Head. Misses Mattie Smith and Myrtle Pearson, with their father, spent last Sabbath at the Caves.

Floyd Pearson will start for Valparaiso, Indiana, in a few days, to attend school. John Dewey, of Blanchester, spent a few days here this week, visiting friends and relatives. "Squire Sylvester has been on the sick list for some time past, but is better at present. Joshua Pearson, an old citizen of this community, is very low, with little prospect of recovery.

A Cameron, the pike contractor, is making extensive repairs on the pike south of town. Martin Redkey will address the citizens of this place on prohibition, on Monday night, the 28th.

The new band lately organized seems to be making respectable improvement under the instruction of L. M. Kelly. Rev. Wright, of the U. B. Church, has been requested to give a conference to all the pulpits at this place next year.

The Institute held here the 23d inst. was well attended, and the exercises interesting. The meeting will be held here on the first Saturday of November.

The new school-house will be completed in about two weeks, and school will then commence in a short time. The carpenters are pushing the work on Dr. Little's house, and expect to have it ready for use in a few weeks.

Mull & Dabrow are putting a new bridge over Brush Creek, near Daniel Pearson's residence.

NEW PETERSBURG.

October 23d, 1886.

New seats were purchased for the school-house last Monday. The plasterers began their work on the school-house last Monday. Bob Snodgrass and wife, of Springfield, were visiting their parents last Saturday and Sunday.

Communion services will be held at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, October 31st. Jonathan VanPelt, of Washington O. H., stopped at D. R. Cunningham's Monday night. J. W. Pearce is confined to his room from sickness.

A small child of Joseph Meredith's, while playing last Sunday evening, fell and broke its arm between the elbow and wrist. E. R. Pearson, Judge Ditty and George Fullerton, of Hillsboro, were here on Tuesday evening, stopped all night at the hotel, and next morning went to Rainsboro to try their luck at fishing. We will not tell how many of the day's fish they caught, but we do tender them our sympathy.

Mrs. Hattie Clay moved to town last Monday. Miss Montgomery lost a valuable mare yesterday morning from distemper. Thomas Mercer, son of Levi and Rachel Mercer, of Hillsboro, was here on Tuesday evening. He was seized with severe violent spells on Friday last week, and suffered intensely until death came to his relief. Funeral services were held at home Thursday morning, conducted by Wm. Erskin, after which the remains were taken to Marshall for interment. The family have the sympathy of the whole community.

Persons having friends visiting them, or any items which they wish to be published, will greatly oblige us by leaving the same at the office, in care of the News-Herald correspondent.

CAREY TOWN.

October 23d, 1886.

Mrs. James Carey is sick with typhoid fever. Weather so dry that farmers in less than a week are very solicitous concerning the wheat crop. A coil belonging to Mrs. Rebecca Carey shed itself to death last week, by trying to swallow a piece of corn-cob from which it was eating. J. F. Lasenby has removed to Cuba, Clermont county, to engage in the flouring mill business. E. O. Carey is building a residence on South Main street. John Ockerman has leased his farm to his son Allen, and will make his future home in New Lexington.

Simon Elton, our village blacksmith, lost a valuable horse one day last week. Dr. C. E. Vance, of New Market, met the creek shoals of this place at their shooting-ground in Trimble's grove, on last Friday evening. He went merely as a spectator, never having seen a tin pigeon. The boys insisted upon his shooting, and he accordingly broke four out of fifteen with his own guns. While the best of them broke but one each, fifteen. The New Market folks are now preparing to wager that he can "kill" more than the best of them broke on last Friday. The New Market folks are now preparing to wager that he can "kill" more than the best of them broke on last Friday. The New Market folks are now preparing to wager that he can "kill" more than the best of them broke on last Friday.

LEESBURG.

October 25th, 1886.

Grace Tompkins is lying very low with spinal affection. Mr. George Hodson, of Westboro, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. King yesterday. Mr. Charles Beeson, of Louisville, Ky., is the guest of Dr. H. A. Beeson and family. William Miller has gone to Springfield to work for Mrs. H. A. Beeson.

Rev. M. Redkey spoke at Chillicothe last Wednesday night to a crowded house upon the political issues of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Elias Johnson have gone to Columbus, Ohio, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Dr. James Spear.

R. A. Johnson spent Friday and Saturday in Cincinnati. Miss Mae Johnson spent last week in Greenfield, and the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers. Mr. S. E. Hixon is erecting a residence on his lot on South street, bought of Joseph Hollowell.

Rev. S. W. White, of Greenfield, is here calling on old friends. Messrs. William and Frank Holmes, accompanied by their families, spent Sunday in town, the guests of their father, Mr. Shepley Holmes and family.

Mr. Payton Johnson, of Illinois, who has been visiting Angeline Johnson, near this place, returned home last Wednesday. Quite a sensation was created in our usually quiet village one day last week, when it was reported that Messrs. Frank Holmes and John Manker had appeared before the Grand Jury and sworn that Messrs. Thomas Smith and James K. Williams were the parties that so maliciously destroyed Rev. Ferguson's buggy some time since. It now appears that Holmes and Manker perjured themselves, as it can be proven beyond a doubt that Manker was eight miles from town on the night in question. It seems that these inhuman scoundrels had a grudge against Williams and Smith, and took this step of having revenge. The same day they perjured themselves, that same day George Washburn's money drawer, and were only prevented from doing so by the ringing of the alarm bell. They have skipped the country.

Rev. M. Redkey started for Cynthiana this afternoon, where he speaks to-night in behalf of prohibition. Mr. Chas. Redkey spent Saturday night and Sunday with his friend, Willie Hodson, near Samanthis.

Mr. Samuel Teter, who has been jerking lightning at Winton Place for some time, returned home Saturday. He goes to Cincinnati to-night, where he will work for a while at least.

Mr. W. H. Teter went to Chillicothe to-day, on business. Our shoe factory is again in full blast, and it is thought that orders will come in fast enough to keep running all winter, without any layoff.

Several numbers of the I. O. O. F. are in attendance at the funeral of Mr. Haller in the Hill City to-day. Mrs. George Lawhead and sister, Eva Elwood, of New Antioch, are in town to-day, the guests of Mrs. Newton Temple.

Grace Tompkins is lying very low with spinal affection. Mr. George Hodson, of Westboro, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. King yesterday. Mr. Charles Beeson, of Louisville, Ky., is the guest of Dr. H. A. Beeson and family.

Last Saturday morning a team of horses belonging to R. S. Evans attached to a wagon and driven by a colored boy, John Williams, becoming frightened started at the corner of High street and Collins Avenue and ran down High, toward Main. The driver did not succeed in checking them until he pulled them into the fence at Dr. Speer's residence. No damage resulted to the team or wagon and the driver escaped with a bruised hand.

Mrs. Eliza Cummings, accompanied by her son and daughter, left yesterday to visit friends in Peoria, Ill.

"Calling names, whether done to attack or to back a schism

Is always a monstrous piece of Jack-assism."

To R. M. Ditty, Publisher Hillsboro Gazette: Many thanks to you for the compliment you paid me in your last issue; but don't you think in your confusion you made a mistake, and placed your own likeness instead of mine? Do you think you answered the questions propounded for your solution? Don't you think you made somewhat of an ass of yourself by saying so much about sneaks and traitors? What do you mean by the following remarks: "It won't answer our charge that the Republican ticket was elected last fall by the most scandalous use of money in bribery to abuse us?" Will you pretend to say that you did not spend all the money you could get your hands on last fall, and will you say you did not use every corrupt means to bribe honest voting?
